Life at the Wart

Waverly is the home of Wartburg College. It is equally famous for its horse sales, which draw horse traders from all parts of the country. This year's fall sale, unfortunately, conflicted with the Homecoming schedule, creating a local housing shortage. Many alumni stayed in faculty homes.

Wartburg is a Lutheran school. This year it sponsored a Consultation of Lutheran bishops involving five Wartburg alumni. One of them, Dr. Wayne Weissenbuehler (right), spoke at a convo.

Senior Gary Fries teaches initiation push-ups.

New classes are always fun ...
for about one week.

Can you roll an egg all the way down the hall?

Opening convocation with Ingrid Walter.

Columnist Donald Kaul came to speak.

Columnist Chuck Offenburger had a date with the Women of Wartburg (WOW).

Homecoming queen candidates Tracy Warnke, Ruth Bottelsohn, Sarah Slife, Karen Waltmann, Judy Bahlmann, Ann Fasse, and Cozy Putzier.

Vern Lee, Tim Kurtt, Scott Sexton, Gary Keast and Bill Puffet pull for the Knights in the Homecoming game. Wartburg defeated Dubuque, 27-26.

Queen Cozy Putzier.

Campus artists take to the brush.

Please send money, mom.

Learning by osmosis.

A fire in Ernst? Just a little one.

New W Club members can't sit for days.

Politicians can.

MD week: Which teacher do you want to face at the pie auction?

The 24-hour dance marathon. Definitely fatigued feet!

OUTFLY!!!!!!

Coach Kurt and other teachers serve the meal with great enthusiasm.

President Vogel ponders the Outfly decision.

The UJAMAA auction helps with money for Africa.

Demonstrations of the martial arts.

A Japanese tea ceremony.

Dr. Fruehling gets balloons and a hug on his birthday. He retired in May after 36 years on the faculty.

Michael Murphey
serenades Wartburg.

Life at the Wart

Dr. Wolff teaches Sheldon Youngberg and Dave Arns CPR.

Blizzards every weekend in January made a long winter. Classes had to be cancelled one Monday.

Snow sculpture for Luther weekend.

Luther weekend brings the Clinton One South Mafia out for heckling.

Cheerleaders and fans go all out for the game and the big party afterwards.

Vern Mohlis explains the fundamentals of computers to Kirby Klinge.

Ah, May Term!

President Vogel gives honorary degrees at graduation.

Earnie Oppermann goes out in style, donning his baseball cap after graduation.

Chris Conrad got a surprise during commencement!

Knights to Remember was the theme for the 1981 Homecoming festivities which took place on Oct. 9-11. Cozy Putzier was crowned queen at the Kastle Kapers ceremony. Saturday the sun came out and helped the Knights to a 27-26 victory over the Dubuque Spartans.

HOMECOMING 1981

Senior Ken Frost (83) takes a block from a Spartan as senior Rod Feddersen (81) comes to his aid.

This float in the Homecoming parade is comparing the Knights power to the strength of nuclear weapons in hopes that the Knights will blow the Spartans off the map.

Knights To Remember 1981

Remembering Don Quixote and his determination, the students hope the knights will have equal determination against Dubuque.

President Bob Vogel kneels during Kastle Kapers in front of 1981 queen Cozy Putzier as her escort, Chris Conrad and last year's queen, Marcia Niehaus look on.

Homecoming weekend started off with the Kastle Kapers production and the crowning of the queen. The 1981 court included Judy Bahlman, Ruth Bottelson, Ann Fasse, Cozy Putzier, Sarah Sife, Karen Waltmann, and Tracy Warnke. The Renaissance Faire preluded the football game against the Dubuque Spartans. The Knights beat the Spartans, the first win in three years. A Worship service brought the weekend to a close on Sunday morning.

Senior Mike Konicek leaps over a Spartan in an effort to move downfield.

choir

The Wartburg Choir spent May Term in Europe, giving 21 concerts in West Germany and Austria. This is the eighth European tour for the choir, which is under the direction of Dr. James Fritschel. In addition to performances, members took side trips and a course for credit entitled "Tour with the Arts," taught by Dr. Maynard Anderson of the Music Department. Side trips included sightseeing in Berlin, a Verdi opera, a visit to Wartburg Castle and a tour through the Black Forest region.

FOOTBALL

Most Valuable Player: Bob Hutchison

The Knights football team wasn't expected to go anywhere this season, but freshman Gary Walljasper matured into the league's top passer, leading Wartburg to a 6-3 record, tied for second with Buena Vista.

The thing that made the Knights stand out was their character. In seven of nine games, they trailed at half-time and four times they came back to win. Three team records were set this season: 1567 yards passing for a season (old record 1464 yards, in 1978), 316 yards passing in a game (old record 303 yards in 1968) and total offense for a season, 2997 yards (old record 2824 yards in 1968).

Five players gained individual attention with their record breaking: freshman Gary Walljasper holds the school highs for most passes completed in a season (132), total passing in a game (316 yards), total passing in a season (1567 yards), total offense in a season (1417 yards), and touchdown passes in a season (12). Ken Frost holds most passes received in a season (46) and most passes received in a career (85). Dennis Washington holds the longest kick-off return (99 yards). Best punting average for the season is held by Dan Rund at 39.5 yards. Rod Feddersen tied the touchdown pass mark with seven carries.

As a team, Wartburg outgained its opponents, 2997 yards to 2336, and outscored them 187-145.

Feddersen receives NCAA scholarship

Rod Feddersen was named the recipient of a $2000 NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship. Tying a school record by catching seven touchdown passes, he also had 73 receptions for 952 yards and 10 touchdowns. Feddersen was also named to the second Academic All American team. A biology-chemistry major, Feddersen earned a grade point average of 3.72.

Coach Canfield gives the team their orders.

The Knights basketball team posted its best record in four years. Wartburg wound up 18-7 overall, the best since 1977-78. The Knights started the season with only two proven players, and one of those, guard Bobby Garris, was lost mid-season with a broken bone in his wrist.

Forward Mark Merritt paced the Knights with 438 points and a 17.5 average and was assisted by John Dickkut at 403 points and a 16.1 average and Greg Schmitz at 301 and a 12.1 average. Merritt and Dickkut were named to the first all IIAC team, and Schmitz was put on the second team.

As a team, the Knights outscored their opponents 1,793 to 1,649. The season field goal percentage of 51.9 set a new school record.

A tip-off to a Wartburg victory.

This year marked the end of Earnest Oppermann's 34-year career at Wartburg as baseball coach, physical education and physics instructor.

At the end of this baseball season, Oppermann's career standings were 354 wins to 367 losses. He began playing baseball in the 1930's and had a successful high school career at Strawberry Point. After graduating, Oppermann went to Luther on a baseball scholarship and also played football and basketball for the Norsemen.

Taking a job to help move Wartburg College from Clinton to Waverly, Oppermann found that the pay was less than expected. So college officials offered to let him finish school at Wartburg cost-free. Oppermann played baseball for Wartburg, and a good junior season prompted the St. Louis Cardinals to offer him a major league contract.

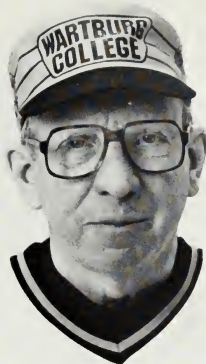

Because of a football injury during his senior year, Oppermann's dreams of a major league baseball career were ended. The injury ruined his throwing arm, and he could no longer make the throw from his catcher's position to second base.

Oppermann continued to play baseball for town teams which drew crowds of 2000-3000 people. While playing for the Waverly Bears, Oppermann got the chance to play the Kansas City Monarchs. The Monarchs featured Satchel Paige and Josh Gibson, both Hall of Fame members.

Oppermann earned college degrees in physics and math. His professional goal was to become an aeronautical engineer. But after graduating from Wartburg in 1938, Oppermann pursued a career in teaching and coaching, urged on by his wife.

In 1943, Oppermann was drafted by the United States Army. A member of the Air Corps, he gained rank until he left as a second lieutenant in 1945. He served as bombardier, navigator and radar man. After discharge, Oppermann was offered a temporary job as Dean of Students at Wartburg.

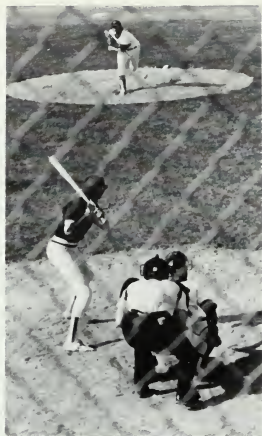

The "temporary" job as dean lasted 23 years. Oppermann also took over as baseball coach in 1948. In his Wartburg career, Oppermann has coached six Iowa Conference championship baseball teams.

The Wartburg Knights baseball team finished with a 7-3 IIAC record, one game behind the champion, William Penn. Oppermann had expected this to be one of his better clubs, but then shortstop Bobby Garris missed the season because of a broken bone in his wrist, sustained during basketball. This forced them to use converted catcher Steve Schulz at that infield position. Nevertheless, Wartburg got off to a great start and was in position to make a run for Oppermann's seventh IIAC title. However, a costly loss to Central proved to be fatal.

Among regulars, one person led the Knights both offensively and on the mound. Greg Schmitz was the Knights' only .300 hitter with a .310 average, and among the starters on the mound he posted a 4-4 record with a 2.95 ERA. Second baseman Mark Arjes led the Knights in homeruns with five, RBI's with 23, triples with two and shared the stolen base leadership with Schulz and rightfielder Bob Hansen with seven each.

As a team, the Knights hit .223, their staff ERA was 5.37, and team fielding percentage was .937. Arjes was voted to the first All Iowa Conference team, and Schmitz was selected as a utility pitcher.

Allnighter. Studying until the words become blurry? Sitting in the hall reading till 5:00 a.m.? Going over details again and again or quizzing each other until you're hoarse? If you have these symptoms, you've got cram-itis. That wonderful time, when you realize you've been sloughing off on reading and assignments, and there's a big test tomorrow. Good luck!*

Concerts. The only way to make a record come alive. REO Speedwagon started the school year off with their concert in the UNI Dome that sold out 26,000 tickets. Journey came to the Hilton Coliseum in Ames, followed by Moody Blues and Barry Manilow. Loverboy and Donny Iris played to a full house, while the Iowa Jam time drew near. On May 29, Quarterflash, .38 Special, Triumph and Loverboy started the summer season at the Iowa fairgrounds in Des Moines with a 7½ hour concert. 27,000 people attended for a day in the sun.

Dr. Elmer Hertel, biology professor and athletics coach, died on November 10, 1981 at the age of 72. He taught at Wartburg from 1934-1979. Previously, he had been an instructor of science at Hebron Junior College and Academy in Hebron, Nebraska and then a professor at Wartburg College in Clinton. Hebron and Wartburg in Clinton merged to form part of what is Wartburg today.

Dr. Hertel achieved recognition as a man with a variety of interests. His main interests and concerns were in science and athletics. He was the president of the Iowa Academy of Science and the American Association of Basic Science Boards and also served as a member of the Iowa Basic Science Board for 22 years.

In his early years at Wartburg, Dr. Hertel coached football, basketball and baseball. The Wartburg baseball field was named Hertel field in his honor. He was also secretary of the Iowa Intercollegiate Athletic Conference for 37 years.

Dr. Hertel was a graduate of Nebraska State College and earned his MA degree from Denver University and Ph.D from the University of Nebraska.

Fall. Back with old friends, but unfortunately classes start, too. A new wave of froshbags come in that must be initiated into the Wartburg way of life. Football games every Saturday keep the weekends anything but dull. Getting to know the faculty is another trauma. But don't worry: just like seniors—their bark is worse than their bite.

Good movies. A few new ones came out during the year:
Taps, Porkys, On Golden Pond, Chariots of Fire, Quest for Fire, Rocky III, Star Trek II, E.T., Poltergeist, and others.

Housing The second year of coed living in Clinton posed no problems. The girls in Vollmer and Centennial seem to get along ok with the guys in Hebron. The manors continue to be the popular place to live. Grossmann Hall residents froze this winter. Off-campus is getting popular, too, as soaring room and board costs become unaffordable. Decorating the rooms is a major task, taking four plain walls and making it into home sweet home for nine months.

Iowa Boy. Chuck Offenburger took on a major battle as he jested in an article about pictures of the female gender on calendars. UNI put one out of sorority girls, and Offenburger asked, "What's next? The women of Wartburg?" Well, the WOW's became offended and asked Chuckie to come to campus for a date. A tour of the campus and a view of the nightlife (at Joe's) made Chuckie change his mind.

Journey. A lot of students go home on the weekends since almost half are from the surrounding area. Towns like Frederika, Tripoli, Sumner, Mason City, Cedar Falls-Waterloo, Shell Rock, Allison and others send their kids to the big town of Waverly to further their education.

Lines. *Catchy phrases and jokes circulate quickly at the Wart. When someone puts you in your place and embarrasses you, you get "faced." Get real, get serious and I'm just sure are still favorites. "Doodah" describes somebody with a temporary low I.Q. "Take off" came on the scene, while "good one" remained. Anymore? Newspaper. The Trumpet isn't always read cover to cover, but it does get some interesting articles. Billy Martin's column was usually a good laugh and sports events were always covered well. Letters to the editor let students air their opinions. But the biggest part of the paper was the ads. Our only touch with the "outside" community, they let us know the specials, the sales and what's playing. Coupons always remain a hot item.

Parties. Who'll ever forget those fun nights of all-campus parties? Beach Party with shades, shorts and wicked punch. The Luther party to celebrate the ecstasy of victory or drown the agony of defeat. The Christmas party and mistletoe means lots of excitement. A preppie party complete with an appearance of the Izod alligator. And the party to end all parties: the Wrestlers Hog Roast. Good eating, drinking and music make the last party of the year a good memory.

Resumes. Those fun little items that all seniors do, they list your age, name, major and activities, too. They won't always get you a job, as the seniors this year found out. Inflation and high unemployment made most of these graduates just another number in the unemployment line, scanning the want-ads for unavailable jobs.

Soaps. Laura and Luke. Donna and Palmer. Raven and Skyler. Margo and Tom. No, not the latest couples on campus. These people make fantasies out of the Days of Our Lives. As the World Turns, we sit in front of the TV and watch the soaps for hours. The Young and the Restless get bored and leave, while some watch so much, the o.d. and must be taken to General Hospital. And Daddy Vokes continues to say "they're All My Children."

Tuition. Yes, we do pay to live like this. And unfortunately the cost is not going down. This year tuition was $2,037. but then if you want some place to sleep and an occasional meal, you've got to fork out an extra $922. Of course, books aren't cheap either. At $15-25 a text, these books should be of longer use than just a term.

Volume. Stereos are abundant at school and they aren't played at a soft level. The idea is to recreate a concert sound, and let everyone hear what's playing. Some of the tunes of the year included off of Journey's Escape album, Don't Stop, Who's Crying Now; REO's In Your Letter, Don't let Him Go; Loverboy's Turn Me Loose, The Kid is Hot Tonight, Workin for the Weekend; Human League's Don't You Want Me; Quarterflashes Harden My Heart, Find Another Fool; Billy Squire's Stroke, In the Dark; Alabama's Feels So Right, Lay me Down; Go-Go's We've Got the Beat; Joan Jet's I Love Rock n Roll; Stevie Nicks' Leather 'n Lace; J.Geils' Centerfold and Freezeframe, and others.

Weekends. This is what everybody looks forward to. And when they're done, we can hardly face the week. Weekends mean sleeping in, and partying. Favorite spots in Waverly are Joe's Knighthawk and the Last National Bank. For those with cars, Cedar Falls beckons with Bojangles on the Hill and Billy Joe's. Two a.m. comes just entirely too soon.

X-tra Curricular Activities. If school doesn't keep you busy enough, there are plenty of other things to do. Cheerleading, pom-poms, KWAR radio, the Trumpet newspaper, student senate, music lessons, band, choir, sports and other organizations. Take your pick. There's plenty to go around.

Y

Yelling. Outfly brings out the insanity in everyone, and yelling is what starts it. This semi-spontaneous holiday is "requested" by yelling on the president's lawn for the one day break from classes. After yelling till hoarse and with ears ringing, we party late and go to the caf for breakfast or lunch served by the faculty. After all, they've got nothing better to do since there's no class!

Below Zero Temperatures. Every weekend in January and sometimes during the week, blizzards snowed Waverly in from the world. Highways were drifted in so that even going to Shell Rock or Bremer was impossible. Going to class was like a trek across Siberia. Class was cancelled one day. This weather lasted well into February, with no sign of warmer weather in sight.

LETTER FROM THE EDITOR

I can't believe that it's finally done. One whole year between covers. I hope that it represents the year as completely as possible so that when you look at this book many years from now, it will bring back happy memories.

A lot of work and time went into making this book possible. I would like to thank everyone from the bottom of my heart for everything they did: Gary Shanks, Paul Beck, and Bill Bartels (photographers), Heidi Schuster and Jan Meier (staff members). Special thanks goes to Buck Whitver, the Josten's representative, and to Rod Pritchard for volunteering himself the week after school was out to help me get this thing done so I could go home. Patience is not one of my greater virtues, and I really appreciate my friends and family who had the patience to listen to me complain. Bob Gremmels deserves many thanks in his patient advisor capacity, plus the help of everyone in the Public Information office (Judy especially helping with "the machine.")

Sudlow Photography deserves much credit for their fine work and time taking the class pictures. It was a job well done.

Good luck to next year's editors: Heidi Roelfs and Carolyn McClure. Hold onto the dreams of what you want the book to be.

Congratulations class of 1982. Four years is a long time at Wartburg. Hopefully they have been a good four years. Good luck in the job market and the future.

Thanks and good luck to everyone!

Karen Petersen
